OBITUARY.

Van Buren Jordan.

Van Buren Jordan, 77, died late Tuesday night at his home on Walnut street. Mr. Jordan had not been in good health for several years. Valvular disease of the heart was the cause of death.
He was a native of this city, born June 23, 1836, the son of Lyman and Louisa Kenyon Jordan. He attended school in Windham, and early in life learned the trade of a mason, working with his father as a bridge builder. He enlisted in Co. H of the 18th C. V. in the summer of 1862, serving until the end of the war, as a musician.
Upon his return he for a time engaged in the express business, and later was in the ice business, but of late years had no active business connections. He was a member of Francis B. Long post, No. 39, A. R. A., a member of the Venerable club of Windham, and prominent in the councils of the local Methodist church.
Five half brothers and three half sisters are his nearest surviving relatives. They are: Dr. D. A. Jordan of Freeport, L. I., Dr. Julius Jordan of Providence and Julian Jordan of New York, the latter a member of the American Legion; Lyman T. Jordan of New York and Charles B. Jordan of Willimantic, Mrs. Wilbur Havens of Niantic, Mrs. Stephen Dutton and Miss Jennie Jordan of this city.

Morin Children Sent to Home of Aunts.

The matter of the disposition of the three Morin children, who were brought to this city by Constable William J. Hastings Monday afternoon, on the petition of Samuel B. Harvey, prosecuting agent for the Humane society, on account of conditions at their home, was before the probate court Wednesday morning.

Judge Shea heard the evidence in the case and concluded that it was best placing the children in the custody of Constable Hastings. The children will be cared for by the two aunts, and their welfare will be looked after by Mr. Hastings so that further action may be taken if it becomes necessary.

Variable Weather.

Willimantic had a touch of real New England weather, such as Mark Twain made famous. A thunder shower, followed by snow, and later rain, which continued at intervals during the day, making conditions disagreeable for everyone who had to be out. Nevertheless the first sign of spring was observed, for a German band was on the streets, the first time this year, in spite of the weather.

District Fire Warden.

Wilbur G. Stevens, Eugene Hanna and Charles Smith have been appointed district fire wardens for the town of Windham by James E. Wilson, town clerk.

Able to Leave Hospital.

Two appendicitis patients were discharged from St. Joseph's hospital on Wednesday. They were Adelard Bergeron and Robert Hanna, who had been in the institution but a week.

School Contracts Awarded.

The contracts for electrical fixtures and hardware for the Windham High school building, and also the new Natchaug school have been awarded by the committee in charge. Pettinelli & Andrews of Boston with a bid of $2,800 are awarded the electrical work.

JEWETT CITY

Clover Leaf Club's Dance—Wednesday
Whist Club Entertained—Funeral of Joseph Ross.

The Clover Leaf club gave a social and dance on St. Patrick's night in the Bldg. Their efforts were rewarded by a very large attendance. The first time was furnished by the Standard orchestra, Leon Morey, Peter Cooper, Charles Bryant and Norman Smith.

The committee who were in charge of the arrangements were Misses Irene Robinson, Eva Laflamme, Mary Smith and Joseph Driscoll.

St. Patrick's Night Social.

St. Patrick's night dance was held in the town hall at Packard Tuesday evening. By request, the Standard orchestra furnished the music.

Rev. P. J. Kuster delivered the sermon at the Lenten service on Wednesday evening at St. Mary's church.

FUNERAL

Joseph Ross.
The funeral services for Joseph Ross were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Robertson, on Mechanic street, Wednesday afternoon.

The service was private. Rev. Samuel Thatcher conducted the service. Mrs. George Thornton and Mrs. Peter McKeown, both of Jewett City, were the officiating ministers.

There were flowers from the immediate relatives. The relatives present were Mrs. Annie Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robertson of Saybrook, Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of Danielson and Miss Mary Rankin and John Rankin of Groton.

Lecture in Stoughton.
Rev. E. M. Hayes was in Stoughton Tuesday, where he delivered the address on St. Patrick at St. Mary's church in.

Attention of Whist.

The Wednesday Afternoon Whist club was entertained this week by Mrs. F. S. Leonard and Mrs. J. H. Jennings at Mrs. Leonard's home.

The first prize, a package of Vanities temple incense, went to Mrs. H. E. Lewis. The second prize, a box of daisies, was won by Mrs. H. D. Hewitt.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with Aaron's rods and daffodils. Dainty bouquets of white sweet peas and violets were the favors.

Ill With Grip.

Mrs. J. S. Jeffers is ill with the grip.

Perfecting Readiness of Speech.

M. Ariside Brand, whose administration for Mr. Lloyd-Jones has just been confessed in the London Chronicle, taught himself readiness of speech on the Congress hall at Stoughton.

His plan was to haunt the Paris cafes and for an hour or two engage any one who cared in the Congress hall at Stoughton.

He strove with the enemy for the sake of the argument, putting forward difficulties which he did not always himself acknowledge in order that he might hear what could be said on the other side. The result of his system was to make him one of the most formidable men in the chamber.

She—If you don't go away at once I shall call my husband. Pedler—I called on him first, and he threatened me with you.—Fingende Blacetter.

ARM DRAWN INTO GEAR.

Thomas Moore, about 67, was injured Tuesday afternoon at the plant of the Elmville Worsted Company in Elmville while engaged, it is said, in attempting to "back off" some cloth that had become clogged in the fulling machine that he was operating.

The belt used to operate the machine is believed to have slipped back from the loose pulley and started the machine while he was at work on it. His right arm was drawn into and through the gear, breaking a bone and lacerating the member. As Mr. Moore was drawn in his body came in contact with the gear and he was scratched and cut about the back and side. He is now a patient at the Day Kimball hospital, in Putnam.
